109 "Flying Eagle" Sweatshirt - Medium

"Flying Eagle" sweatshirt by Haida artist Dr. Freda Diesing. One of the first female artists on the modern Northwest Coast, Freda began her career at the age of 42. She studied at the Vancouver School of Art and at the Gitanmaax School of Northwest Coast Indian Art at 'Ksan Village. In the 1960s, Diesing and a handful of other artists were responsible for the re-awakening of Northwest Coast art and culture. In the 1980s, her work was included in the ground-breaking exhibition, Legacy - Tradition and Innovation in Northwest Coast Indian Art assembled by the Royal British Columbia Museum. This later toured to other countries, helping bring awareness and appreciation to her culture's art and history to the world at large. SECTION ONE.

173 Autographed Copy Theft By Finding Diaries 1977-2002 by David Sedaris

This collection of diary entries by author David Sedaris is at times heartbreaking, and at other times hilarious. Human frailty, self-sabotage, ardent pursuit of goals, and personal progress are all major themes. The comedy comes both in the form of Sedaris's writing style, as well as the universe apparently dropping the oddest of circumstances and the most eccentric of humans in the humorist's path. It reads fast--all short diary entries--and you find yourself rooting for the author and his friends and family. When success comes later in the book, it's easy to be proud and thrilled for him, all the while wondering how in the hell he got there based on his shortcomings and self-destructive habits. Recommended and entertaining reading. SECTION ONE.
